Doctrinal Statement Of The William Carter College

The tenets of the belief of the members of the Corporation are as follows:

1. That the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are fully inspired of God and inerrant in the original writings, and that they are of supreme and final authority in faith and life.

2. That there is one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

3. That Jesus Christ was begotten by God, born of the Virgin Mary, and is true God and true man.

4. That Jesus Christ died for our sins aeeording to the Seriptures; that His atonement is for the whole human raee, and that whosoever repents and believes on Him is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin.

5. That man was ereated in the image of God; that all human beings are born with a sinful nature, and, in the ease of those who reach moral responsibility, become sinners in need of being converted.

6. That entire sanctification is that aet of divine grace subsequent to regeneration. "Wherefore Jesus also, that He might sanetify the people with His own blood, suffered without the gate" (Hebrews 13:12). "For He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin: that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him" (2 Corinthians 5:21). "Knowing this, that our old man is crueified with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin" (Romans 6:6). There is therefore a holy and victorious life for the believer, as we fully eonseerate ourselves to Him, and "reekon ourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God" (Romans 6:11; Ephesians 4:22-24).

7. That there is for every believer, whose heart has been eleansed, an enduement of "power from on high," the Baptism with the Holy Spirit, as taught in the Book of Aets.

8. That the Holy Spirit bears witness to the New Birth, as well as to the entire sanetifieation of believers.

9. That there was the resurreetion of the erueified body of the Lord and His ascension into Heaven, and that there now is "that blessed hope" of His personal premillennial, imminent return.

10. That the Seriptures plainly teaeh the bodily resurreetion of the just and unjust; the everlasting happiness of the saved and the everlasting conseious suffering of the lost.

DEDICATION

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if on brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, and imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God, and love of our fellow men, we engrave on those tablets something that will brighten to all eternity.

Webster

In appreciation of his choice of life work, and because his life has touched ours, the class of 1971 dedicate this edition of The Challenge to Rev. Ned Douglas Sauls.

CAMPUS NIGHT CLASS

A desire for truths concerning God's Word and work, motivates many individuals, weary from a day's work, to travel to Carter College each Monday night. Students from various walks of life and many religious denominations find new light on the Scriptures and greater knowledge of the conditions of the world as they relate to the work of the Lord, in two power-packed fifty-minute classes. Dean Moore captivates the interest of a responsive class — some regular auditors, some occasional listeners, the majority — regular students taking courses for College credit.

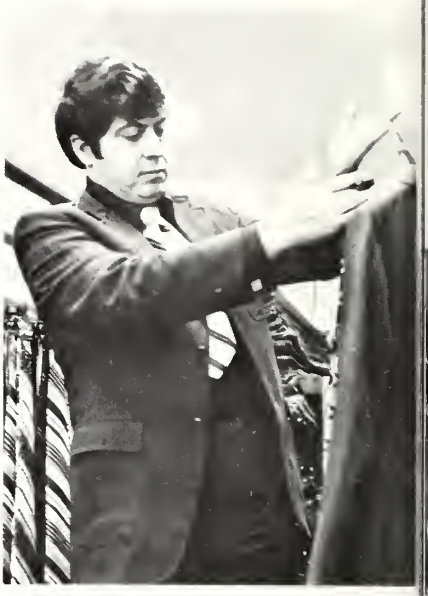
WORSHIP

STUDY

"Oh my! The last bell just rang!" These immortal words never fail to be said as the day begins. Four classes on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and three on Tuesday and Thursday keep the students running. Various subjects are taught, but the Bible is used as a basis and is the center of every course taught. Classes change, Instructors change, but God remains.

WORK

Whether it be styling hair, driving a bus, selling cookware, clothing, furniture, insurance, or teaching music, our students are working to make their education a dream-come-true.



FELLOWSHIP

A sense of unity prevails among the entire student body. Students share experiences, joys and sorrows. They learn from each other. Students at Carter College enjoy being together.

IN MEMORIAM

Rev. John Grant

Rev. John Grant, of Route 3, Snow Hill, a beloved member of the Board of Trustees of the William Carter College and the Board of Regents of the Evangelical Theological Seminary, died of a heart attack Saturday morning, July 4, 1970.

At the time of his death, he was the minister of the Goldsboro Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church. On May 31, at the annual commencement of the College and Seminary, he received a special citation as the "Distinguished Trustee of the Year."

Rev. Grant served as assistant pastor at the Free Gospel Tabernacle at Shine Crossroads in Greene County, and at the Tabernacle, Goldsboro. During his long tenure as a pastor, he served the following churches: Garland Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church, Garland; Baysden Chapel Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church, Richlands; Turkey Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church, Turkey; Mill Street Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church, Rocky Mount; and the Goldsboro Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church, Goldsboro. He also participated in many revival services.
Because of his small stature, the people of the Shine community, and Greene County, Particularly Affectionally called this man of God, "Little John." He was born and reared in Shine Township and retained his residency there during his entire ministry. He was married to the former Rosa Chase and was the father of four sons and four daughters.

Dearly loved by all who knew him, he was called night and day to visit the sick and pray for them. Whether these calls came from the hospital, private homes, or wherever, he carried with him an air of simplicity, love, compassion and concern.

Those of us who knew him best still miss his presence, his friendly smile and the wonderful art of prayer that he so graciously exemplified. But believing that the world of tomorrow is much better than the world of today, we would like for our guardian angel to carry a message to Brother Grant and let that message be:

"Rest on, rest on in peaceful rest,
Eternal life God gave.
Here mortals yet unborn will stand,
Beside his lowly grave.

"Nor shall his goodness be forgot
While time His record keeps,
For friends will mark the sacred spot.
Where Brother Grant sleeps."

OUR CHURCH INVITATION

WE SEND you the most cordial greetings of our Church and a hearty invitation to its services and privileges.

This Church was organized for fellowship in the worship of our Lord Jesus Christ; for mutual helpfulness in the joys and sorrows, the labors and aspirations of our hearts and homes; for the saving of men and the regeneration of society.

Your presence and your prayers will promote our success.
